

ALFRED HITCHCOCK

EXERCISES

COMPREHENSION

Exercise 2.

1.F, 2.T, 3.F, 4.T, 5.T, 6.F, 7.F, 8.F

VOCABULARY AND GRAMMAR

Exercise 1.

obesity - overweight

widely known - acclaimed

lifelong - long-standing

revenge - vengeance

threat - risk

misbehave - act up

launch - initiate

mayhem - havoc

Exercise 2. What is the difference?

overweight - z nadwagą; obese - otyły

bring up somebody - wychowywać kogoś; grow up - dorastać

pass out - zemdleć; pass away - umrzeć

produce a film - wyprodukować film; direct a film - wyreżyserować

Exercise 3.

He prefers silent films to sound films.

It was a lifelong love. When his wife passed away, he started leading a very humble life.

Jenny was ashamed of her controversial dress that she wore for her friend's wedding.

Can you name five influential directors?

When her children act up, she orders them to drink juice from a dozen of lemons.

Exercise 4.

I always preferred humble existence TO lavish life.

She didn't expect this journey to last so long. CORRECT

George never felt ashamed OF his obesity.

They GREW up in a loving and caring family in Texas.

Don't accuse me OF being a liar! You didn't tell me the truth, either!

She leadS a lonely life of a modern businesswoman.

